

I am writing in support of Indiana's telephone privacy act. I do not want it weakened by allowing businesses (banks) to make solicitation calls. If I want to speak with my bank or any other business then I will call them. I do not want them calling me trying to sell me other services or more credit cards. Please deny the bankers petition. Sincerely, Amy Rader-Biggs